

The Asian American Bar Association (AABA) of Houston is a voluntary organization of lawyers of Asian heritage or who have Asian American interests, dedicated to promoting diversity within the legal profession and Houston community.

WILL-A-THON & LEGAL LINES

AABA volunteers deserve extra recognition and appreciation for their participation in two events that took place this July. Their time and energies made an immediate positive impact on the people directly served at these events. Additionally, their efforts furthered the AABA's mission for long-term positive impact on the community at large.

On Saturday, July 12, 2008, along with the Houston Bar Association, Houston Volunteer Lawyers Program, Radio Saigon Houston AM 900, VNTeamwork, and ProDoc, the AABA co-sponsored a Wills Clinic for the Vietnamese community at the offices of Radio Saigon Houston. We were able to provide 142 people with much needed advice and preparation of will and estate planning documents. Special Thanks to Lynn Chuang Kramer, Tom Hoang, Michael Cao, and Tyrone Lin for all their efforts in setting up and administering this event! And a huge thank you to the many members, both attorneys and students, who so generously volunteered their time and expertise to this event. We couldn't have made it a success without you!!

OPPORTUNITIES

National Conference of Vietnamese American Attorneys (NCVAA '08) cordially invites you to attend our 3rd annual conference on August 16, 2008 in San Francisco, California, hosted by the Vietnamese American Bar Association of Northern California (VABANC) and the Vietnamese American Bar Association of Southern California (VABASC). We are the only national organization that provides a forum for distinguished Vietnamese American judges, elected officials and attorneys to celebrate our accomplishments in the U.S. and abroad, promote the high standards of professionalism in law and politics, and discuss legal and community issues affecting Vietnamese Americans. It is through this exchange of dialogue that we will be able to build new bridges - bridges between cultures, between generations and between courtrooms. Register at <http://ncvaa.org/Registration.html>

International Association of Korean Lawyers (IAKL) will hold their 16th Annual Conference on Thursday, September 11, 2008 – Sunday, September 14, 2008 at the Radisson Plaza Warwick Hotel in Philadelphia, PA. For more than 20 years IAKL has worked to promote communication, friendship and networking opportunities between lawyers in the United States and abroad who have interests in Korea. This year, the conference sessions will address a broad range of legal issues and topics facing Korean companies, lawyers and persons. In addition to providing CLE credit for many of the conference sessions, IAKL will be hosting a number of receptions and networking events during the conference. Our scheduled keynote speakers include Don Liu, General Counsel of Xerox, Harold Koh, Dean of Yale Law School and Michael Kang, Director of The Motel and West 32nd. We truly hope that you will be able to attend IAKL's conference this year as it promises to be a terrific event. Register by August 11, 2008. For more information go to: <http://www.usa.iakl.info/>

1. If I weren't an attorney, I would be . . . a military officer for reasons I don't know why, a medical doctor or in all probability, a professional poker player
2. My favorite (or fantasy) vacation is . . . going back to any of the 7100 islands of the Philippines that is uninhabited
3. The best dessert (or other food) in the world is . . . Brazos de Mercedes
4. In my spare time, I enjoy . . . being with my kids, actually they are not kids anymore.....
5. In my iPod (or other mp3 device) you will find . . . 70s and 80s music and of course some Filipino music
6. Most AABA members probably don't know that I graduated from a law school in the Philippines and just took the bar here.....
7. The best restaurant in Houston is . . . Garson's if it is still existing.....
8. My favorite place in Houston is . . . my home
9. The sports team(s) I root for is/are . . . Rockets, Texans and Astros
10. If I won the lottery, I would . . . set up a foundation for the poor
11. You forgot to ask me about . . . my two daughters and my son and of course my lovely very supportive wife
